

HOLY SCRAP 2013

Scrap-Craft Event at Lambertville UMC

Friday September 20, 2013 at 4pm. until 10pm
& Saturday September 21, 2013 at 8am until 11pm.

Two days of scraping, crafting, quilting or beading for your convenience.

All types of hobbies are welcome!

Friday there will be a light evening meal.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served on Saturday.

Water, soda, coffee and snacks will be available through out the day on Saturday.

The youth will be on hand Saturday morning to help carry your things in.

Tables full of Raffle prizes. 21 hours of time to do what ever you want.

Cost is $40 for 1/2 of an 8' table, Friday & Saturday

$35 for Saturday only

We will sponsor the garage sale again this year.

You may donate your items or sell your items and give a percentage back to the group. Register early as table space may be limited. Only new and gently used craft items are allowed.

This is your time. Summer is over, the kids are back in school and you have all those projects you want to get back into. Get a head start on Christmas presents. Don't forget to include your friends and make it your getaway with friends. Maybe you don't scrapbook, thats ok, you can work on any project you choose.

This is a day for you to get away and let someone else prepare the meals.

All proceeds to benefit Lambertville United Methodist Youth Group

The youth group at LUMC is large in numbers and together they are very involved with our community. Each year our youth take one week out of their summer to do mission work. Some of the projects they get involved with are helping underprivledged individuals. Some of those projects may be rebuilding an individuals home or updating homes to make them liveable. We at LUMC are very proud of the work the youth accomplish each year

The youth need your support. The funds collected from this event help the group to help others.
